James Garrison
District Attorney
Parish of New Orleans
New Orleans, La.

Dear Mr. Garrison:

At the outset of this communication I would like to take a moment to wish you the happiest and most productive New Year. Judging by the direction and degree of your progress in the matter presently occupying your attention.....you should make it conclude in 1968.

After our initial correspondence I decided to pull back from matters related to your concern until I consider the time as right. A large and supposedly respected Federal Agency made a veiled attempt to enrich me for certain cooperation. I turned it down without a second thought.

The following need not be acknowledged nor is an acknowledgement expected.

I quote from a guilt-edged source of information.

" Heard from two reliable sources that a "contract" was made this week in the Bay area to take care of the man in New Orleans. .....(something about pressure)....an ex airline stewardess now living in Chicago. attends Chicago Art Institute."

The circles is for your information and judging by the recent pressures building up represents nothing nothing new to you. For me it fits an almost unbelievable pattern....MISSION IMPOSSIBLE....North Hollywood and a man traveling from Tulsa south on the day of the killing.

My informant and close associate may visit New Orleans shortly.....a few minutes of your time might prove useful. Nothing positive yet and no reply required.

Cordially,

Jules Striso
